

What's on in Normandy?

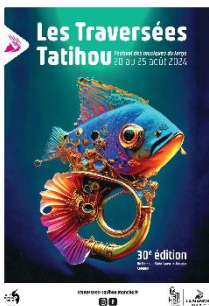

Celebrating the 80th anniversary of its liberation on 24 August, Evreux (Eure) is organising various festivities including its 25th edition of its acclaimed comic book festival. 50 authors will present their work and one of the main themes of the festival will be World War II.

The festival will take place on 24 & 25 August.

Discover more right here: Festival BD Evreux

And also: Medieval Festival on 10 & 11 August in Falaise (Calvados), Cathedral Lightshow every night until 28 September in Rouen (Seine-Maritime), Alençon celebrates its freedom until September with main events from 8 to 12 August in Alençon (Orne)

Les Traversées Tatihou is a music festival taking place on the small island of Tatihou right in front of Saint-Vaast-la-Hougue (Manche). Just like to reach Elizabeth Castle in Jersey, you can walk to the island at low tide or take an amphibious boat to reach the festival and enjoy the traditional music coming from all around the world from 20 to 25 August. Have a look at the programme: Les Traversées Tatihou

And also: Normandie Impressionniste until 22 September all around Normandy, Historical Reenactments from 9 to 11 August in Hyenville (Manche), Musical August until 10 August in Deauville (Calvados), Organ Music Festival until 25 August in Sées and Alençon (Orne), Medieval Festival on 31 August & 1 September in Fatouville-Grestain (Eure)

In 2004, a collective of artists had the idea to use the abandoned scrap metal at the port of Granville as part of an artistic night called La Nuit des Soudeurs. Since then, welders from everywhere are creating artistic pieces overnight that are sold in an open auction the next day. Don't miss out on this unique event taking place on 3 & 4 August in Granville (Manche). Find out more here: Nuit des Soudeurs

And also: Sheep and Agricultural fair on 3 August in La Hague (Manche), Antiques Fair from 15 to 18 August in Cany-Barville (Seine-Maritime), Tattoo Festival on 17 & 18 August in Deauville (Calvados)

The Cabourg (Calvados) racecourse offers festive and sporty evenings around horse races until 27 August. During the “Estivales de Cabourg”, high-level events will be accompanied every Tuesdays and Fridays by free activities where competition, music, games, relaxation, and gastronomy come together.

Find out more: Les Estivales de Cabourg

Don't miss the Normandy Horse Show until 4 August in St-Lô (Manche), Enduro des Sables or Sand race from 9 to 11 August in Agon-Coutainville (Manche), Sports Day on 31 August in Blangy-sur-Bresle (Seine-Maritime)

TOURISM

CULTURE

ECONOMY

SPORTS