

What's on in Normandy?

TOURISM

Discover William the Conqueror's medieval castle in Falaise (Calvados) transformed into a fairy-tale setting, where strange and wonderful stories unfold from room to room... The Kingdom under the Sea is an exhibition that will run until 5 January and will appeal to your imagination as you walk through this magnificent castle.

Get to know more: Kingdom under the Sea

And also: Illuminated villages from 30 November to 5 January around the Orne County, Evreux festivities from 21 December to 5 January in Evreux (Eure), William's Cathedral, sound & light show from 18 December to 4 January in Bayeux (Calvados)

CULTURE

Photography enthusiasts, come wander through Deauville (Calvados) until 5 January to discover the works of artists invited to the Planches Contact festival through outdoor exhibitions and at the cultural centre Les Franciscaines. Planches Contact is also an opportunity to participate in workshops to learn and refine your vision through the lens!

Have a look at the programme here: Planches Contact

And also: Fish & Films until 1st December in Granville (Manche), Gimme Some Folk on 8 December in Rouen (Seine-Maritime), Otite, a Sound Festival on 16 & 17 December in Aurseulles (Calvados)

ECONOMY

If you're going to the Orne department this winter, head to Sées to take part in the Toy Fair on 8 December and the Christmas Market the following weekend. There will also be the Turkey & Regional Products Fair on 14 December with a traditional turkey stew lunch before a 5 or 10km race or (digestive) walk.

Find out more here: Turkey Fair

And also: Christmas Fairs until 5 January all around Normandy, Scallops Market on 7 & 8 December in Trouville-sur-Mer (Calvados), Normandy 4 Good, regional innovation award ceremony on 17 December in Caen (Calvados)

SPORTS

The Cyclo-Cross Normandy Cup will take place at the equestrian centre of Saint-Lô (Manche) on 29 December. Combining road cycling, mountain biking and cross-country running, cyclo-cross is a challenging discipline that tests riders' endurance and adaptability. It promising to be a great spectacle to watch with food on offer!

Find out more: Cyclo-Cross Normandy Cup

Don't miss the Frozen Feet Cup, coastal regatta on 7 December in Ouistreham (Calvados), "Galopades de Noël" races on 20 December in Bayeux (Calvados), Foulées Andelysiennes races on 29 December in Andelys (Eure)

